NICHOLAS (NICK) PILGRIM

Triathlon Resume and Results

Nick has been competing in triathlon since he was 8. He was an active member of Trihedz, Harbour Swim Club, Bicycle Works Racing Team, MAAC Running Club and Gnosis Cycle Team.

From the age of 13 Nick joined the USAT High Performance Youth Team, Endorphin Fitness (based in Richmond, Virginia, US) and was coached by the founder and head coach of Endorphin, Michael Harlow.

During that time he raced in the USAT Youth Elite Cup races (ages 13-15) and then the USAT Junior Elite Cup series (ages 16-19). Throughout that period he had mostly top 10 finishes out of fields of 50-70 competitors. Nick continued to compete at home in Bermuda and was 2nd in the first WTS age group race held in Hamilton in 2018 (aged 15) and won the race the following year in 2019 (aged 16). Nick won the 2023 Liberty Mutual Sprint National Championships in 2023. Nick has also won the Front Street Mile on several occasions.

Since 2021, Nick has attended the University of Bath in the UK and is a member of the University's High Performance Squad on the GB National Pathway Centre for Triathlon at Bath, led and coached by Jack Hall. Nick graduated with a BA in Sports Management from the University of Bath in 2024, and is currently enrolled at the University in a Masters program in Sports Management which he should complete later in 2025.

During his time at Bath, and continuing into the 2025/2026 season, Nick has trained and will continue training in the High Performance Squad at Bath under GB Triathlon Coach Jack Hall. Nick is a highly respected senior member of the Squad.

Nick competed in numerous Junior Elite Races (16-19 age group) and in 2022 aged up to the U23 division, since when he has competed in numerous World Triathlon Continental Cup races as well as Continental Championships. See results below.

Nick is currently ranked 496 in the world Rankings and 112 in the Americas Continental Ranking.
